

The Evening Bulletin.

Issued every Afternoon Except Sunday, from 600 King Street.

J. T. STACKER, EDITOR.

MONDAY, MAY 20, 1895.

The EVENING BULLETIN is willing to have in its columns the views of correspondents on live topics, but only when the true signatures of the writers are appended. When anonymous writers are pleased to send communications relative to any matter published in this paper and expect their scribbles to be given to the people through the medium of the EVENING BULLETIN they will kindly add two cents more to their expenditures and buy a stamp. Postal cards are not considered au fait in business circles.

The Hawaiian, Julien D. Hayne's contribution to the literature of Hawaii, made its appearance in the book stores this morning. The periodical is octavo size and will no doubt be sought after by the people who see no good in anything missionary as well as by many who do. Mr. Hayne is a forcible writer and he seems to have put all his energies in this, his initial number, in attacking an element which, if not entirely popular with certain classes, enjoys the happy distinction of fathering some of Honolulu's best institutions.

As the engines at the new pumping station have no connection with the Makiki reservoir it is rather mystifying that people on the plains are so often deprived of sufficient water for household purposes. From eight o'clock until eleven this morning at Makiki, in some of the residences, it was impossible to get a drop of water from the pipes, and this, after we are told that there is an ample supply in the artesian well for all purposes, and engines capable of forcing it to all of the residences in the district. Occasionally the lack of supply may be attributed to breaks in the machinery as was the case this morning, but would it not be well to arrange for such an emergency. As it is the householders are deprived of water for three or four hours; but had the break been more serious they might have gone on for an indefinite period washing themselves in root beer and ginger ale. On the other hand if the arrangements for supplying the city with water were even half complete there would not be any occasion for the complaints that are forever being made.

The Tournament.

Honolulu has among its citizen a few knights of the cue who rank with the average billiard player in the United States, but there are apparently, so few of them that interest in the game is lost. For a house game there is none that requires greater skill and closer calculation than billiards and as a means of quiet recreation and change of thoughts from the usual business channels nothing so fills the bill.

The billiard rooms of the Hawaiian Hotel have lately come under the management of Harry Saylor, who has put the tables in first-class condition and arranged them in position much more comfortable for the players. A tournament is being arranged to take place after June 11th, and four of the best players in the city have signified their intention of taking part.

The arrests made to-day include a Japanese for deserting contract service, three native drunks and a Portuguese and Chinese for assault and battery.

JOHN DUNN KICKS.

Objects to Being Hauled Up as a Vagrant.

John Dunn is a man who, according to his own account has done considerable service for the Hawaiian Republic in furnishing the police department with news concerning the late uprising. He also gained some notoriety by, as he says, venturing alone and unaided into the rebel camp, full particulars of which were published in one of our contemporaries at the time of the adventure.

John was told some time since that the police had no further use for him, but when on the 14th of the present month he was arrested as a common vagrant his heart was broken and it is not mended yet, although on the day following his arrest a nolle pro. was entered in his case.

Instead of being a vagrant Dunn claims that on the day of his arrest he had a meal ticket calling for 21 meals at the Sailors' Home restaurant, of which only four had been eaten, the ticket being purchased the day before. He had also on his person an Elgin watch worth $26 and $20 in cash on deposit with Castle & Cooke.

New Native Paper.

J. Nawahi, recently acquitted on the charge of conspiracy against the Republic of Hawaii, is soliciting patronage for a new native paper soon to be issued from the Independent office. It will be issued both daily and weekly, and it is asserted that Nawahi himself will be the boss editor.

The Pumping Plant.

Superintendent Brown informs the EVENING BULLETIN that the necessary repairs to the bursted water main have been made and that the pumps started again at noon to-day on a 24-hours trial run.

Any one who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 220 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a siege of that distressing ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Merriam's confectionery establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes especial pleasure in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Havana Flats

is the latest novelty in cigars. This is a perfectly flat cigar. The filler is Havana of a very high grade and laid in, like the sheets of a book, in the same way as cigars that cost $150.00 per thousand. The outside appearance of the cigar conforms to the filler, and is perfectly flat. Those of our cigar customers who have sampled them pronounce the Havana Flats of excellent quality and of unique and attractive shape.

Havana Cigars

by reason of their superior quality and name are usually sold at high prices. We have an excellent line of these cigars direct from Havana. While the quality of these cigars is at the top-notch our prices have been scaled down to bring these popular cigars within the reach of all.

Manila Cigars

need very little said in their praise, for they are well known here to every smoker. It would be difficult to get a better cigar for the price at which Manilas are sold. We allow no one to undersell us in this line. We compete with any nationality. Remember that when looking for Manila Cigars.
